

ABSTRACT. We give two versions of relative hyperbolization. We use the first version to prove that if (each component of) a closed manifold M is aspherical and if M is a boundary, then it is the boundary of an aspherical manifold.